

National Digital Library

Still Image Submittal Form

Please fill out the fields below and attach this form to the item(s) you are submitting.

Photograph Information

Photo number or code _____

Photograph title _____

Alternative title (scientific name if species depicted*) _____

Date photo taken _____ File Format ☐ JPEG ☐ TIFF

Camera used _____

Location (country, state, refuge, give as much information as possible) _____

Description (describe what is going on in the photo, significance to overall species, resource conservation, etc.) _____

Photographer Information

Name _____

Address _____

Phone _____ Email _____

Photographer signature

Date submitted

The National Digital Library is seeking public domain images (free for all uses including commercial and derivative) that are the “best of the best” shots, with relevancy to the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service—our land and our people.

The Service's Priorities

(check any that apply)

- ☐ National Wildlife Refuge System — Conserving Our Lands and Resources
- ☐ Landscape Conservation — Working with Others
- ☐ Migratory Birds — Conservation and Management
- ☐ Threatened and Endangered Species — Achieving Recovery and Preventing Extinction
- ☐ Connecting People with Nature — Ensuring the Future of Conservation
- ☐ Aquatic Species — National Fish Habitat Initiative and Trust Species.

Rights conveyed to the USFWS

(please check and attach signed form)

- ☐ Public Domain
<http://www.fws.gov/forms/3-2259.pdf>
- ☐ Restricted
Photo of an adult or minor child:
<http://www.fws.gov/forms/3-2260.pdf>

Contacts

Eileen_Hornbaker@fws.gov
304/876 7675

Debora_Martin@fws.gov
304/876 7426

Sarah_Gannon-Nagle@fws.gov
304/876 7459

Mailing address

USFWS, NCTC
Creative Libraries Branch
698 Conservation Way
Shepherdstown, WV 25443

Identify species by subject matter expert or credible resource, such as The Sibley Guide to Birds: David Allen Sibley, or Integrated Taxonomic Information System, <http://www.itis.gov/>*